It sits on a quiet, secluded, private development at the edge of the village of Kokkino Chorio with lovely sea views from the 1st floor balcony and ground floor terrace.

Built in 2002 this house is very well maintained, the shower room, stairs and kitchen have been completely refurbished a few years ago.

INTERIOR:

The main entrance is protected by a pergola with-interwoven canvass which creates shade and could be used as a sitting corner towards the south.

Inside the house, on the ground floor, you will find an open plan kitchen with a comfortable living/dining area and a modern fully tiled shower room with a glass cabin and mosaic tiled floor. The renovated kitchen is fully equipped and includes a multi function NEFF oven to enable you to rustle up delightful meals using the fresh local produce. The LG washing machine was installed as part of the kitchen renovations.

The house comes fully furnished including all linens, crockery and cutlery, literally ready to move in to!

New wooden stairs with a useful storage space underneath lead to the top floor consisting solely of the comfortable bedroom. The bedroom is equipped with a reversible air-conditioning unit, a ceiling fan and a metal double bed with an Emma mattress.

There is a property manager in place for rental, change-overs, etc.

EXTERIOR:

This house is one of the middle houses in a terrace of 4 similar, two storey houses overlooking the lovely pool. There is another terrace of 4 making up the development and the pool is shared by the 8 houses, as are the lovely gardens. There are plenty of paved, terraced areas for sunbathing including the lower garden terrace which is a very peaceful sunbathing/relaxation area.

There is a secluded, large, covered, shady terrace leading off the ground floor to the pool area, privatized with a wall of scented bushes and flowers. The top floor offers a fairly large balcony with outdoor furniture and a glass banister protecting from the wind but allowing the stunning sea views to be enjoyed while soaking up the sun.
